SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION honoring Ron Wuensch.

Whereas, Ron Wuensch retired as the executive director of the Indiana Optometric Association after 44 years of dedicated service to that organization;

Whereas, The Indiana Society of Association Executives, for whom Ron served as president from 1973-1974, honored Ron by making him the first recipient of its Association Executive of the Year Award in 1982;

Whereas, Ron also received the National Management Achievement Award from the American Society of Association Executives in 1965, 1967, and 1968, and was elected a Certified Association Executive, an honor bestowed on only a very select group of association executives in the United States;

Whereas, During his years as executive director of the Indiana Optometric Association, Ron felt that to be a truly effective administrator, the executive director must personally experience the legislative process and its effect on the association;

Whereas, Therefore, Ron could be seen daily in the halls of the State House ensuring that the best interests of his organization were being met;

Whereas, Ron was dedicated to making sure that he was fully informed regarding all the issues affecting his association;

Whereas, Ron believed that grassroots work and collaboration were the keys to success for the Indiana Optometric Association and helped its local societies around the state put on a pre-legislative conference to bring health care issues to the attention of legislators and candidates; and

Whereas, Ron Wuensch worked diligently to further the Indiana Optometric Association's primary goal, which is "the continuing development and the participation therein of quality eye/vision care for Hoosier citizens": Therefore,

Be it resolved by the Senate of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana, the House of Representatives concurring:

1 SECTION 1. That the Indiana Senate thanks Ron Wuensch for his
2 dedicated service to the Indiana Optometric Association and the state
3 of Indiana and its citizens and wishes him happiness and contentment
4 in his retirement.

5 SECTION 2. That copies of this resolution be transmitted by the 6 Secretary of the Senate to Ron Wuensch and his family.
